

FIVA CULTURE AWARDS

Guidelines

1 FIVA CC AWARD

The FIVA Culture Commission (CC) awards were launched in 2017.

The Award celebrates and promotes best practices related to historic vehicle promotion, management, research, education and communication.

The objective is to present a greater understanding, public recognition and support for historic vehicles as a significant part of our heritage.

2 THE AIM

The aim of the FIVA CC AWARD is to promote and recognise achievements in the field of cultural and technical mobile heritage.

These include:

- Raising awareness of the specific heritage values that historic vehicles represent
- Recognise achievements in services that protect mobile heritage
- Encourage a greater appreciation of the cultural impact of historic vehicles

3 AWARD CATEGORIES

The awards are given for following categories:

3.1 RESEARCH

Outstanding research projects which lead to tangible effects in the enhancement of cultural and technical mobile heritage worldwide.

3.2 DEDICATED SERVICE by INDIVIDUALS or ORGANISATIONS (CLUBS, FEDERATIONS, MUSEUMS, etc)

Open to those whose contributions, over a long period of time have exceeded normal expectations and demonstrated excellence in the protection and enhancement of mobile heritage worldwide.

3.3 EDUCATION, TRAINING and AWARENESS-RAISING

Outstanding initiatives related to education, training and awareness-raising in the field of cultural and technical mobile heritage, focused on promotion and/or contributions to the sustainable development of the environment.

4 SELECTION PROCESS

The FIVA CC will assess the nominated projects and select the winners in the relevant categories. Awards will only be made for projects meeting a high-quality standard.

The applicants must present the project by end of August in the current year in English language.

The decision on the winners of the awards are final. The CC will describe the features that led to the choice of winners.

The applicant can nominate one project in each category in year. The same project cannot be presented more than once.

The CC will present the winner for each category at the annual FIVA General Assembly.

The applicant agrees that FIVA has the right to use the supplied material, in all formats (text, pictures, video, etc) for FIVA promotional uses.

5 THE AWARD:

The CC award will include;

5.1 A FIVA Culture Award plaque

5.2 Publication of the project on the FIVA webpage and social media

5.3 Presentation of the project at the FIVA General Assembly, normally held in November

6 HOW TO APPLY

The application must consist of:

6.1 A completed application form which will include the explanation of the project or nominated organisation

6.2 Pictures of the project/ short film

6.3 An authorization agreement for FIVA to have the rights to use the material submitted for promotion and information on copyright owner(s) for material submitted that applicants do not have rights for.

The application form may be downloaded from the FIVA website www.fiva.org

Submit the completed form and supporting information to both the following email addresses: office@fiva.org and culture@fiva.org

Applications must reach the Cultural Commission by August 31st.