

Shotaro Kobayashi

Shotaro Kobayashi, was the founder of CAR GRAPHIC, Japan's premier monthly automotive magazine, first published in 1962, and which has been acknowledged as Japan's leading automobile magazine for the last six decades. Kobayashi was widely known and respected as the doyen of Japanese automobile journalists. He was CAR GRAPHIC's Honorary Editor since 2010, until his death. He was throughout active as an automotive journalist, as well as an automotive historian and the Chairman of Classic Car Club of Japan.